

2021 国际能源发展高峰论坛

International Energy Executive Forum 2021

2020年12月10日 | 中国北京
10 Dec 2020 | Beijing, China

CONFERENCE AGENDA

09:00-09:20	Welcome remarks
09:20-10:30	Keynote address The New Map: Energy, climate, and the clash of nations Dr. Daniel Yergin, Vice-Chairman of IHS Markit Global Oil &amp; Gas Market: Great Challenges by Covid-19 Dr Joseph McMonigle, IEF Secretary General
10:30-10:40	Break
10:40-12:00	Keynote dialogue Searching for Common Ground Amid Diverse Geopolitical interests As the interests of world powers diverge and frictions build up among them, is there anything they can still agree on and work together for their common good? Which are the areas where they can work together on and what are the implications for the energy sector?
12:00-13:30	Lunch Break
13:30-14:50	Continual Innovation in the Energy Industry Innovation is the life blood of any industry. Several leading experts will review the latest innovations in the energy industry and discuss what needs to be done to ensure that the industry will keep renewing itself in the years to come.
14:50-16:10	Outlook of the Chinese Energy Industry in the Next Five Years Our distinguished speakers will discuss the implications of the upcoming 14th Five-Year Plan, which is the economic blueprint for mainland China for the next five years, for the development of the energy industry and offer their views on its outlook.
16:10-16:20	Break
16:20-17:40	Sustainability and Environmentally Friendly Infrastructure Development Given society's concern about the impact of human activities on the environment, sustainability is one of the key trends in the 2020s. Minimizing the impact on the environment should be the goal of new infrastructure development going forward. Our renowned speakers will present their opinions on this important issue.
17:40-17:45	Closing Remarks

* IHS Markit reserves the right to make changes to the event program without prior notice. Please click here for the latest agenda.