Presents

“International Energy Forum: Achievements and Prospects”

With

Aldo Flores-Quiroga

Secretary General, International Energy Forum

WHEN: 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, Tuesday, May 7, 2013

(ERE’s IEF Practicum Team will briefly present their work with the IEF after Secretary General Flores-Quiroga’s talk)

WHERE: The Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS)

Rome Auditorium, Rome Building

1619 Massachusetts Avenue NW,

Washington D.C., 20036

With 89 member countries the International Energy Forum (IEF) is unique in that it comprises not only consuming and producing countries of the IEA and OPEC, but also transit states and major players like China and India.

IEF secretary general, Aldo Flores-Quiroga will talk about the organization's role in promoting consumer-producer dialogue in the world oil market. Additionally, to showcase the emerging relationship between SAIS and the IEF, ERE’s IEF Practicum team will make a brief presentation on their work with the IEF over the past academic year.

Dr. David J. Jhirad, Professor and Director, ERE Program will introduce the speaker and moderate the discussion.
